arge size of the class, please avoid phone messages and email unless it is an emergency. This uble the number of students normally assigned to a 4000 course and it would be hard to keep Mail traffic with over 100 students.

t Note: If you have not met the prerequisites for this class, you would need to drop it as per ment of Economics' policy. We are asked to enforce this, so if any student who shows up on the prerequisites that have not been met, will be dropped. Please consult advising at the Econ have any question about this. Another note from the Department is that students may be vely dropped if they miss the first 3 classes. Remember, there is usually a wait list, so please do ally, please consult the new Honor Code and the policy for student classroom behavior. These
