Final Exam Conflicts

Official University Policy states that: If you have three or more final exams scheduled on the same day, you are entitled to arrange an alternative exam time for the last exam or exams scheduled on that day. To qualify for rescheduling final exam times, you must provide evidence that you have three or more exams on the same day, and arrangements must be made with your instructor no later than the end of the tenth week of the semester. It is highly unlikely that our final will be the third exam on the day of our final, so it is highly unlikely that any alternate exams will be offered.

Group-Led Article Discussions, Quizzes and Participation

We will review several relevant academic articles on different issues in natural resource economics. You will be required to understand these articles, and you will work in teams of 3-5 people to present

Incompletes, Extra Credit, etc.

I adhere strictly to the University guidelines on Incompletes (“An I is given only when students, _____, have been unable to complete course requirements. A substantial amount of work must have been _____ before approval for such a grade is completed.”). Bad grades, unsatisfactory performance, too many credit hours, work conflicts, etc. are not reasons for an incomplete.

I am adamant about giving each student an equal opportunity to perform well in the course, so there will be no extra credit opportunities that are not offered to the entire class. You should focus your efforts on learning the material and doing well on the exams.

If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit to your professor a letter from Disability Services in a timely manner (for exam accommodations provide your letter at least one week prior to the exam) so that your needs can be addressed. Disability Services determines

A reply from one student to another on the discussion board for one of my colleague's online classes: "If you read the course syllabus you will find the answer to your questions. If you do not understand what you read I recommend you read multiple times. After reading the syllabus if you still have questions come back and I will try to help you as much as possible."
