Course Description: This is the first course in a two-course sequence designed to transition you to the research and scholarship phase of your doctoral program. The primary goal of the course is to develop a research proposal that features a well-specified research question, a literature review that explains the contribution of the proposed work, and a proposed methodology. Given that students to-date have demonstrated that they can be consumers of knowledge, this course focuses on becoming producers of knowledge.

Course Organization: The

Grading: The primary assessment for this workshop is the quality of the research proposal.
