Econ 8747: Industrial Organization Theory

Fall 2022

Professor Yongmin Chen
Office: Econ 108
Class Time: TTH: 2:00-3:15 PM
Office Hours: Wednesday: 11:15-3:15 PM.

Recommended books: (1) The Theory of Industrial Organization by Jean Tirole (1988), MIT Press, (2) Industrial Organization: Contemporary Theory and Practice by Pepall, Richards, and Norman, and (3) Handbook of Industrial Organization, Vol. 3 (HIO 3, 2007, Mark Armstrong and Robert Porter edits). HIO 3 surveys the major developments in IO after Tirole's book and can be downloaded electronically through CU library. Tirole (1988) remains as the classic graduate IO textbook. You are encouraged to read the entire book and work out the exercise problems there (even though we only cover a few parts of the book in the course).

Lecture Notes: I will make available some lecture notes/slides on the Canvas page for the course. These lecture notes/slides and other course material are to be used only by students who are enrolled in the course. You may not reproduce, distribute, or display them without my written permissionhave research question, and can either (i) build and analyze a model, deriving results to answer the question; or (ii) conduct a literature review and discuss how you will proceed with the research, or (iii) inap1.49 Tdinshould contain a title, abstract, and references; about 12-18 pages long, double spaced.

A tentative course schedule is as follows. There can be changes to this schedule during the semester, which will be announced in class. You are responsible for updating course information according to announcements made in class. The starred articles are required readings. You should also read additional assigned articles (at least briefly), especially on topics that you would like to explore more. You will be asked to write short reviews/discussions of some papers (each review/discussion is about 2 pages long, double spaced; but occasionally you may do a longer review). When you review a paper, you may provide a summary, discuss the research question(s),

University Policies

Classroom Behavior

Both students and faculty are responsible for maintaining an appropriate learning environment in all instructional settings, whether in person, remote or online. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status, political affiliation or political philosophy. For more information, see the classroom behavior policy, the Student Code of Conduct, and the Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance.

Requirements for COVID-19

As a matter of public health and safety, all members of the CU Boulder community and all visitors to campus must follow university, department and building requirements and all public health orders in place to reduce the risk of spreading infectious disease. CU Boulder currently requires COVID-19 vaccination and boosters for all faculty, staff and students. Students, faculty and staff must upload proof of vaccination and boosters or file for an exemption based on medical, ethical or moral grounds through the MyCUHealth portal.

The CU Boulder campus is currently mask-optional. However, if public health conditions change and masks are again required in classrooms, students who fail to adhere to masking requirements will be asked to leave class, and students who do not leave class when asked or who refuse to comply with these requirements will be referred to Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution. For more information, see the policy on classroom behavior and the Student Code of Conduct. If you require accommodation because a disability prevents you from fulfilling these safety measures, please follow the steps in the "Accommodation for Disabilities" statement on this syllabus.

If you feel ill and think you might have COVID-19, if you have tested positive for COVID-19, or if you environment. Information on requesting accommodations is located on the Disability Services website.

Contact Disability Services at 303-492-8671 or dsinfo@colorado.edu for further assistance. If you have a temporary medical condition, see Temporary Medical Conditions on the Disability Services website.

Preferred Student Names and Pronouns

CU Boulder recognizes that students' legal information doesn't always align with how they identify.
Students may update their preferred names and pronouns via the student portal; those preferred names and pronouns are listed on instructors' class rosters. In the absence of such updates, the name that appears on the class roster is the student's legal name.

Honor Code

All students enrolled in a University of Colorado Boulder course are responsible for knowing and adhering to the Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code may include, but are not limited to:
plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, lying, bribery, threat, unauthorized access to academic materials, clicker fraud, submitting the same or similar work in more than one course without permission from all course instructors involved, and aiding academic dishonesty. All incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution (honor@colorado.edu); 303-492-5550). Students found responsible for violating the Honor Code will be assigned resolution outcomes from the Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution as well as be subject to academic sanctions from the faculty member.
Additional information regarding the Honor Code academic integrity policy can be found on the Honor

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. See the campus policy regarding religious observances for full details.
