

Grading:

Overall weighted-average scores will be curved at the end of the semester. The departmental guideline stipulates an average letter grade of  $B = C^+$ . Put differently, the ranking of your numerical score among others matters for your final letter grade. It is not difficult to earn a  $B = C^+$  or higher grade if you keep up with the pace of your classmates. However, any academic misconduct is prohibited. At a minimum, the portion found accountable for honor code violation will receive a zero score. Exam cheating (e.g., peeking into another's exam, using a prohibited device) or repeated clicker fraud will ordinarily result in failure of the course and disciplinary sanction by the office of student conduct.

External Tutoring:

The Department of Economics provides a free drop-in tutorial lab for undergraduates enrolled in ECON courses at ECON 12. The tutors are expert to help with all under-4000-level courses and some upper division electives. The department also provides a graduate student tutor list in which you may contact and hire a private tutor. The residence life offers free small group and walk-in ASAP tutoring services for students living in the residence hall and Bear Creek, and off-campus freshmen. Participants in the SASC programs (McNeill and TRiO/SSS) or on high financial need (e.g, Pell Grant) are eligible for the SASC supported tutoring. The SASC also provides a tutor locator to possibly hire a private tutor. Student athletes on varsity teams are eligible for tutoring through the Herbst Academic Center.

University Policies:

Accommodation for Disabilities If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit your accommodation letter from Disability Services to your faculty member in a timely manner so that your needs can be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities in the academic environment. Information on requesting accommodations is located on the Disability Services website. Contact Disability Services at 303-492-8671 or dsinfo@colorado.edu for further assistance. If you have a temporary medical condition or injury, see Temporary Medical Conditions under the Students tab on the Disability Services website and discuss your needs with your professor.

Religious Holiday Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. See the campus policy regarding religious observances for full details.

Classroom Behavior Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status,
